Oat meal, cracked wheat, young onions and radishes at Banta's.

The boys who have been soldiering in Breathitt will be paid off next week.

A company is being formed in this city, composed of young men, to go to Leadville, Colorado.

Mr. J. M. Wakefield has added to the attractions of his already model boarding house a magnificent piano.

The ladies are all invited to attend the great sacrificing and closing-out sale at M. Hartstein's, as the goods must all be sold in a few days.

The ice cream season will soon be here, and persons who have ice cream tubs and buckets belonging to Mr. L. Weitzel are requested to return them to him at once.

Mr. Darsie preaches to-morrow morning on "The Mission of God's Word." No service at night, owing to a union meeting at the Baptist Church, in the interest of the Franklin County Bible Society.

The traveling public will regret to learn that Mr. David Meriwether has retired from the management of Capital Hotel. He is one of the best, most comfortable hotels in the city, and the place is not to be easily filled.

Every farmer in Franklin county should visit the establishment of Bowen & Holton, dealers in agricultural implements, Ann street, opposite Tobin's. Oliver Chilled Plows, Brinley's, and all first-class brands of plows at bottom prices.

The stockholders of the Frankfort and Flat Creek Turnpike Road Company held their annual election last Tuesday, and the following gentlemen were elected a Board of Directors for the ensuing year: L. E. Harvie, R. B. Lewis, Milton Moore, Lev. H. Scott, and Joe Harrod.

That new and beautiful "Bradley Range" at Watson & Co.'s, is a darling—so says Will. Riddell, and he's the great stove king of Frankfort. For durability, economy, convenience, and good baking qualities, it stands without a rival. It is made for any and all kinds of fuel, and is suited to the wants of every section, and to the purses of everybody.

At the organization of Olive Branch Lodge, A. O. U. W., last week, the following officers were elected:

O. S. Walcutt, P. M. W.
L. Herrmann, M. W.
F. V. Gray, Foreman.
G. W. Shaefer, Overseer.
J. O. Maier, Recorder.
E. H. Taylor, Financier.
D. C. Crutcher, Receiver.
J. F. Sover, Guide.
V. Kaltenbrun, I. W.
C. Betts, O. W.
W. H. Phythian, Examining Physician.

The Greenback party held a convention in the court-house last Monday, and appointed delegates to the State convention which meets in this city soon.

An elegant portrait, in oil, of Mrs. Lizzie Walcutt has been on exhibition in J. I. & W. H. Waggener's show window this week. It was painted by Mr. J. S. Gillespie.

There is a new voting precinct in the city. All voters residing west of St. Clair street and north of Main street, in the city of Frankfort, will hereafter vote at the House, in the classic precincts of what vulgarly known as "Craw."

The annual mass meeting of the Franklin county Bible Society will be held at the Baptist Church to-morrow, Sunday, evening at 7 1/2 o'clock. The other congregations usually co-operating in the Bible work will have no service in their respective churches and will unite in this meeting.

It will soon be time to commence gardening, and in order to raise vegetables one must have garden seeds. By consulting the advertisement of Dr. Averill you will see that he has a large stock of Land's superior garden seeds, in bulk and in packages, which he will sell at lowest market prices. Call and see him.

Mr. Robt. B. McKee, well known in this county as an educator of superior ability, took charge of a large school at Eldorado, Mercer county, last Tuesday. The people of that vicinity will find in Mr. McKee a gentleman and scholar who will give entire satisfaction to his patrons. His friends in this county wish him unbounded success.

Officer B. B. Jeffers heard of twenty-one pieces of meat having been stolen from Mrs. Wm. Featherstone, near Forks of Elkhorn, and forthwith begun to investigate. The following is the result: Five houses searched, and stolen meat found in four of them; Austin Pollard, Miles Wilson, Langston Patterson, and Jane Thompson arrested and locked up in jail—some for stealing the meat, some for receiving stolen goods, and some for selling stolen goods. "Rah for Jeff!" He's a good one.

The following is the roll of honor of Dudley Institute for the month of February:

Faith Casey,	Hope Casey,
Agnes Fitzhugh,	Nannie Fitzhugh,
Antoinette Lindsey,	Maria Lindsey,
Helen Lindsey,	John Price,
Burford Hendrick,	Brokie Fitzhugh,

Alton.

Dr. J. W. Speer is the earliest riser in town—so he says.

One of our young men contemplates going North in a few days. We think it a little too early in the season.

We feel sorry for a young man from Mercer county, if he should happen to meet Press. Don't come down this way soon, Tom.

Mr. J. B. Catlett swapped for the celebrated trotting horse, Gyertallen, a few days ago. He is considered the finest roadster in this county.

Mr. S. B. McCoun, of Shelby county, is visiting his cousin, J. C. McCoun. Bish. always receives a hearty welcome from his many friends in this neighborhood.

Miss Ada Guitner, of Lawrenceburg, will deliver a lecture on "Fine Arts of Society," to-night (Friday) in the Christian Church. She expects and deserves a crowded house.

The Christian Church at this place has employed Elder Terrill, of Lexington, to preach for them two Sundays in each month. He is a young man of fine talent, and has made a good impression in our midst.

Mr. J. W. McAfee, Principal of Alton Academy, is as fine a gardener as any in town; he has enlarged his garden, and now has a space 10 by 12 feet. He will not employ more than twelve hands with two-horse plows to break it up.
